Dear Friends,

Paul returned to the truck this a.m. via motorbike. It again had a problem which he fixed. He then rode along with the truck until they arrived here at the mission station FINALLY after 8 days since getting off the boat.

Tomorrow they hope to haul boards out of the forest that they sawed over a week ago so we will see how that goes. Our goal is to leave probably by Friday for Katako Kombe and the camp meeting sight! Please help us pray to that end!

Please continue to stand in the gap for us.

(What a job it is going to be to pack up this house with all of our kitchen supplies and the rest!) We are the 'movers' here.

What a challenge this adventure has been! Better for it all, I remain, Sincerely, Marty
